

Global Studies Minor (Area Studies through Study Abroad) (20 units)

NOTE 1: Students are expected to study abroad. SSU courses may apply, but cannot be relied upon

NOTE 2: NOTE 2: Two courses (8 units) may be from the Arts and Humanities. The rest must be from the Social Sciences (e.g. Geography, History, Political Science)

Group 1: Language: low-level proficiency

- Language course (or proficiency test)

Group II – Regional-level courses

Take at least 2 courses covering the broad region in which you study. (e.g. Europe, Latin America, East Asia)

- Recommended (before studying abroad): GEP 305 or 306: World Regions in Global Context
-
-
-

Group III – Country-specific Courses

Take courses focusing on the specific country in which you are studying (e.g. Spain, Korea, Chile, etc.)

-
-
-
-